

Air Transport Management BSc (Hons) (Top-up)

Level: 6

Campus: The Aviation Academy

Duration: 1 Year

Validated:

UCAS Code: M854

Institution Code: C88

Overview

The Air Transport Management BSc (Hons) will enable you to build on prior knowledge of the aviation sector and will develop your skills-set to critically evaluate, carry out research and explore a range of innovative and strategic tools to equip you for the fast-paced, global environment that is air transport management. Industry specialists including Leeds Bradford Airport; Jet2.com and Ryanair have worked with The Aviation Academy Team to ensure the course reflects current knowledge and best practice in the air transport industry.

The teaching team at The Aviation Academy have professional experience and backgrounds in business and aviation; they deliver a range of modules that will prepare you for 21st century leadership and management roles.

Modules

Semester: 1

- Innovation & Change Management in Aviation | 20 credits | Report
- Critical perspectives of the Service Sector | 20 credits | Report

Semester: 2

- Business Strategy in the Aviation Industry | 20 credits | Report
- Disaster Management in the Air Transport Industry | 20 credits | Case Study & Reflective Report
- Dissertation | 40 credits | Dissertation Report

Entry Requirements

- 240 credits from Aviation Management & Operations – Pilot Studies FdSc or Aviation Management & Operations FdSc or other Level 5 qualification in a relevant subject area
- Clear Disclosure Scotland or DBS check

Career Progression

- Graduate Schemes – British Airways, EasyJet, Jet2.com
- Aviation Management
- Air Transportation

Academic Progression

- Air Transport Management MSc
- International Management in Aviation MSc
- Commercial Aviation MSc
- Post-graduate Degree