

Arrangements for obtaining the views of staff and students

The Instrument and Articles of Government of the College require the publication of arrangements for consulting with staff and students on the determination and periodic review of the educational character and mission of the College and the oversight of its activities.

Students

The student voice is at the heart of the College's decision making and quality assurance processes.

Students are consulted via the following means:

- Student Council
- Course representatives
- Student Governor
- Student focus groups
- Student surveys
- Academic Board
- Student conference

Feedback received from students contributes to the College's quality assurance and review processes including the annual Self-assessment Report and Quality Improvement Plan and is reviewed by College management and Governors on a regular basis.

Staff

The College seeks to engage with staff through the following opportunities

- Staff surveys
- Staff Governors
- College committees
- College News publications
- Working groups
