

CRAVEN COLLEGE

HIGHER EDUCATION STUDENTS - TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 These terms and conditions represent a contract between Craven College ("the College") and you, a prospective student. By accepting the College's offer of a place on a programme (whether through UCAS or otherwise), you accept these terms and conditions in full, which along with:
- (i) your offer letter from the College ("Offer");
 - (ii) the College's rules, regulations, policies and procedures located in the Reports and Policies section of the College website (as amended from time to time);
- 1.2 The College works with our partner university, the University of Hull and also with awarding organisations AAT and Pearson. By agreeing to these terms and conditions you are agreeing with the terms and conditions held jointly between the University and the College and the awarding organisations.
- 1.3 All students are expected to respect the rights of others and take responsibility for their own actions. Students' responsibilities are to conform to academic rules and regulations and comply with acceptable standards of behaviour. Where there are instances of non-compliance, disciplinary action will be taken. The College's Student Positive Behaviour Policy can be found in the Reports and Policies section of the College website. One of the possible outcomes of such an action is that your Contract with us may be terminated and you may be removed from your programme.
- 1.4 If you do not enrol within 14 days of the start of the term that your programme begins, the College reserves the right to refuse to enrol you and withdraw you from your programme (without liability). Students who are not enrolled are not entitled to attend classes or participate in assessments for any modules.

2. APPLICATIONS

- 2.1 All applicants have a responsibility to ensure the information submitted on their application to the College is accurate and up-to date. The decision to offer a place is based on the information contained in the application.
- 2.2 Where it is discovered that an applicant has submitted incorrect or inaccurate information as part of their application, the College will investigate further and reserves the right to withdraw the offer of admission, or terminate the enrolment at the College, according to the circumstances, without liability to the applicant. The College also reserves the right to refer cases for further investigation (where applicable), for example for UCAS applications to the UCAS Verification Team.
- 2.3 The Offer the College makes to you will be conditional or unconditional. If your Offer is conditional, the College will set out the conditions which you will need to fulfil in order to be admitted onto your chosen programme. The College may set minimum entry requirements for levels of attainment at GCSE or equivalent, particularly in English language and/or mathematics. This information will be clearly stated within entry requirements for specific programmes.

- 2.4 If you have not fulfilled the conditions of your Offer before the date notified to you in your Offer or any other date notified to you, the College reserves the right to withdraw your Offer.
- 2.5 You will be required, at the request of the College, to provide satisfactory evidence of your qualifications (including English language qualifications if required) before admission. Failure to provide such evidence to the College's reasonable satisfaction may result in the termination of your Offer or enrolment as a student of the College and the termination of the Contract.

3. CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT AND REGISTRATION

- 3.1 Your enrolment and admission to the College, attendance on a programme, and right to enjoy any of the privileges of membership of the College, including access to services and facilities, is subject to you complying with the terms of the Contract and enrolling with the College.

You may be eligible for a student loan for your programme. Information about how and when to apply for student finance can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/student-finance>. The College can help with the completion of loan applications to Student Finance England. All responsibility for the initial application, the progress of the application and approval of the loan remains with the student. - 4.2 If you accept an Offer, you agree to pay all programme fees (and other related costs as applicable, as per clause 4.8), as and when they fall due, in accordance with the payment terms agreed by you and us. If you fail to pay your programme fees, as and when they fall due, the College reserves the right to withdraw you from your programme.
- 4.3 You will not be deemed to have completed enrolment until the College has received payment of your tuition fees, either in full or the first instalment, or satisfactory evidence has been produced that such fees will be paid by a sponsoring authority or scholarship. Without this confirmation, students will be expected to pay a deposit at enrolment or will not be enrolled on to the programme. You will be personally liable to pay your tuition fees if a sponsoring authority fails to do so.
- 4.4 In the event that your programme fees have not been paid in full by their due date, the College shall be entitled, but not bound to, refuse to permit you to continue on your programme of study and terminate the Contract.
- 4.5 The College may pursue legal proceedings in relation to non-payment of programme fees.

If you reasonably believe that a proposed change will prejudicially affect you, you may either cancel the Contract and withdraw from the programme without any liability to the College for tuition fees where fees are paid directly to the College (even if the cancellation period referenced in Clause 5.1 has expired), or transfer to such other programme as may be offered by the College for which you are qualified.

In cases such as these a 'teach out' programme will exist for those currently enrolled on programmes. Where numbers are low this will involve individual supervision. If the College is unable to offer this due to College closure, the College will use reasonable endeavours to assist you in finding an alternative comparable programme with another Higher Education provider in the UK.
