Our purpose-built campus is set close to the town centre, within easy walking or cycling distance from most residential areas, and is served by excellent local bus and train routes, so you can leave the car at home!

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Craven College can be reached easily from Barnoldswick, Bingley, Bradford, Colne, Earby, Haworth, Keighley, Leeds, Nelson and Otley, among many other places. Take a look at the map overleaf to find out more.

The College offers extensive financial support, including subsidised travel, to help eligible students with any barriers they may face.

Don't forget, there are also lots of travel discounts available to students, such as railcards and bus passes.

WALKING

Travelling through Aireville Park, the Aireville Campus is less than 15 minutes' walk from Skipton train station or less than 20 minutes from Skipton bus station. You can get to the Auction Mart via Aireville Campus, or there is a pedestrian route along the canal to the southern side of the Auction Mart.

CYCLING

By bicycle, the Auction Mart and Aireville Campus can each be reached from the train or bus station in less than 10 minutes, via Gargrave Road.

For more information about assistance with transport costs, please visit the Craven College and North Yorkshire County Council websites.

ACTIVE TRAVEL

Pedal power your way – cycling to College is cheap, green and a super way to maintain fitness.

Or stretch your legs with a walk to the town centre, which only takes around 20 minutes. Take the scenic route through Aireville Park and along the canal.

If you have to drive and are heading to the Aireville Campus, why not park at the Auction Mart and enjoy a two-minute walk with this great view!

The circular zones on the map overleaf show you how long it would take to travel to the College.

DID YOU KNOW?

Car-users can experience 5-times more pollution than cyclists and 3½-times more than walkers! (source: Sustrans)

To keep your bike safe and dry, cycle parking is available at the Aireville Campus. We also have showers available.

Use the map overleaf to work out the best route to the College for you!

If you want to travel actively in Skipton, your journey will probably include a stretch along the canal. Not only will you be getting a bit of exercise, but you'll also be able to avoid some traffic and exhaust fumes and you might even spot some wildlife!

TRAVELLING ACTIVELY CAN BRING YOU A LOT OF BENEFITS:

STROLL NOW, SLEEP LATER – Walking or cycling in a green environment can reduce stress and lead to a better sleep the following night.

ACTIVE BODY, ACTIVE MIND – Tired from exams and assignments? Exercise can help improve brain function and promote creativity.

FREE AND CONVENIENT – You can just get up and go when it suits you, beat the traffic and it won't cost you a penny on fuel.

HANG TIME – walk with a friend and chat as you go!

IMPROVE YOUR ENVIRONMENT – leaving the car at home means less pollution and better air quality.

MENTAL HEALTH – improve your mood, treat depression (it's as effective as medicines for mild depression), reduce stress and anxiety and build self-esteem.
