BSc Air Transport Management

Course code

HE 00014L/1-A

Welcome to Craven College. In particular, welcome to the BSc Air Transport Management.

Your course leads to an award of the University of Hull and has been validated by the University to assure the quality of your learning experience and the standards of the award. Validated means that the University of Hull endorses a programme taught at another institution as being equivalent to its other programmes leading to a similar award at the equivalent level. Craven College has designed your course and is responsible for all your teaching, support and assessment.

The University has carefully scrutinised the standard of your award and the quality of the learning experience provided by Craven College.

This handbook has been produced utilising guidance provided by the University. The handbook sets out your rights and obligations as a student taking a course delivered by Craven College leading to an award of the University. It points you in the direction of further information, such as full copies of regulations and procedures which will apply to you.

It is your responsibility to familiarise yourself with the contents of this handbook, and make sure that you use it as the first source of information and guidance on matters relating to your course and status as a student.

Matters detailed in this handbook are subject to review and change during the year. Every effort is made to ensure that the information is accurate and up-to-date at the time of publishing. Craven College will inform you of any changes occurring during the year.

More information for HE students is available on the HE Student Team – speak to your Course Tutor if you cannot access the HE Student Team. You will find lots of additional information including: HE study skills; digital skills; bursaries; academic misconduct guidance and more. It is useful for you to have a quick look at each of these sections so you can find your way around the forms etc when you need them.

As students studying a course validated by the University of Hull, the University is very pleased to welcome you and is delighted that you are beginning or returning to your studies at Craven College. The University has a long standing and much valued relationship with its partner institutions and hopes that you find your time in higher education rewarding and enjoyable.

The course team is looking forward to meeting you and hopes that your time at Craven is both enjoyable and successful.

Following enrolment, you will be given a Craven College student email account and access to Microsoft Teams. This email account or Teams must be used for all communication with College staff to adhere to GDPR guidelines.

At enrolment or induction you will be given your timetable for the academic year; you are expected to attend all timetabled sessions. Vital information from your tutors may be missed due to non-attendance, which is likely to affect your overall performance. Please make a note of key dates noted in the HE calendar on the next page.

3. INTRODUCTION TO THE PROGRAMME

The BSc (Hons) in Air Transport Management has been developed to provide a progression route for students studying the Craven College Foundation Degrees: Aviation Management & Operations and Aviation Management & Operations (with Pilot Studies), in addition to students studying similar level courses as other institutions.

Your responsibilities as a student

If you change your address and contact details, you should inform your Course Tutor immediately to ensure the system is updated. This includes your email address as the College may contact you in this way in the future.

It is your responsibility as a student to comply with the Course and Module requirements for attendance and for completion of assessments. All your work must be submitted recording your student reference number, you must not include your name. Each piece of work must also include record of the word count or presentation length. Please ensure you follow the Assessment submission procedure for Higher Education

As a student studying at Craven College, you are expected to conduct yourself in an appropriate manner and exercise consideration to fellow students and staff. In addition, you must take responsibility for ensuring that academic requirements are fulfilled and any course and/or College deadline is met.

If you are absent from the College

The HE courses at Craven College consist of taught timetables sessions. We expect you to attend all of the classes as this will give you the best chance of success and allow you to make the most of your time at Craven. We understand that occasionally this may not be possible, in which case you should notify your Tutor and record your absence on Proportal. Please report this on each day that you are absent.

Course communication

You are advised to check your course Team and your College email account regularly for updates.

4. PROGRAMME SPECIFICATION

The programme specification can be found on your student Teams page.

5. MODULE HANDBOOKS

See module handbooks available on your student Teams page.

6. ASSESSMENT AND MARKING CRITERIA

Approval of assessments

All assessments are approved by the Assessment Approvals Committee prior to issue to students. Faculty contacts at the University of Hull are required to comment on assessment briefs before they are issued to students.

Academic Contact / External Examiner

The Academic Contact and External Examiner are involved in the assessment of all work to confirm the standard of the marking of the internal examiners. The Academic Contact and External Examiner review a sufficient sample of such work to satisfy him or herself that the standards being applied are appropriate.

Assessed group work

Where working in pairs or in groups is a component/task of the assessment, there will be a system for awarding an individual's mark, which will be clear in the assessment brief and therefore approved at the Assessment Approvals Committee.

Summative assessments

Assessments are marked according to the marking criteria. Provisional summative assessment marks are issued to students with feedback within 4 working weeks of the assessment deadline. However, all results are provisional, which means they may be changed by the module board, for example on the advice of the External Examiner. Marks are not final until the Programme Board of Examiners has met the first week in July.

Second consideration and second marking

Second consideration and second marking of assessments enables marked work and feedback to be critically appraised to ensure that the marking criteria have been correctly applied and that feedback to students is constructive.

Please see the folder called Assessment Marking Criteria UoH courses which can be found on the HE Student Team.

7. STUDENT FEEDBACK AND SURVEYS

Student feedback is very important to the College and enables us to improve the student experience. The College has an active Student Union for all students (FE and HE). You can get involved in various ways such as running in the SU elections which are held in October or being a course representative to represent the voice of your fellow students.

Group and Individual Tutorials

The Course Tutor will schedule group and individual tutorials, and this is an opportunity to raise any aspect of the course or College you would like to discuss.

Student involvement in meetings

The College holds meetings about higher education throughout the year, HE Operational meetings and HE Scheme Management Board. We invite students to attend these meetings, as your input is very important to the College.

Attendees at the HE Scheme Management Board include Managers and Senior Managers involved in HE at Craven.

Attendees at the HE Operational meetings include staff teaching on HE courses and staff across College who are involved in HE, such as Student Services, Admissions, Marketing

We fully understand that students may not be able to attend our HE meetings in person so remote attendance can be arranged.

Focus Groups

The HE Team meets with each group of students for a Student Focus group at least once each year. You will be invited to give your opinion about various aspects of studying higher education at Craven

Module evaluation

You will be asked to complete a short module evaluation form following completion of your modules at the end of semester 1 and semester 2 modules will be discussed in a focus group. Evaluation of modules enables the Course Team to make any amendments (if applicable) to enhance the module.

Student surveys

You will be asked to complete surveys at the start and end of your course at Craven College. You will be prompted to complete the survey by email. The responses are managed by an external company and are anonymous.

We encourage you to complete these surveys when they arrive. The surveys are your opportunity to have your voice heard and help the College in making improvements to your course and the College as a whole.

National Student Survey (NSS)

All Higher Education students across the country are invited to complete the National Student Survey (NSS) in the year of the end of their course. The survey is open January to April each year; the NSS will email you with the link for the survey. For more information go to <https://www.thestudentsurvey.com/>. The College uses the responses from both the internal and NSS surveys to make improvements to our courses.

Graduate Outcomes Survey

In addition, 15 months following completion of their course all Higher Education students are contacted by Graduate Outcomes to complete a final survey to gain an insight into career destinations and development. This survey is a really useful tool to understand the graduate perspective and evaluate success.

8. IT INFORMATION AND ACCESSING COLLEGE SYSTEMS

The MyCraven app provides you with quick and easy access to a range of information to support you on your journey as a Craven College student such as timetables; MOODLE; Teams; Proportal etc.

Please note, some of the links and information within the app are for FE students only.

The MyCraven app can be downloaded onto your own device from Apple and andriod stores.

9. HOW AND WHERE TO HAND IN AN ASSESSMENT

Assessment submission procedure for Higher Education

All coursework will be routinely scrutinised using the originality checking software, Turnitin. You will have the opportunity to use the originality checking software with a draft of your work to increase your awareness of good academic practice and learn in practical ways how to improve your academic literacy skills.

All your work must be submitted recording your student reference number, you must not include your name. Each piece of work must also include record of the word count or presentation length.

All work must be named using the following format ahead of submission to Turnitin:

File name: student number (without the ST) + module initials (see the module list for your course which includes the initials) + task number

- Details regarding assessment submission are found in each module handbook
- Deadlines are non-negotiable, students experiencing problems outside their control must apply for an extension or additional consideration
- The deadline time for electronic submission is 4pm on the deadline date
- All written work and other work that can be submitted electronically will be submitted via Turn-it-in, which enables proof of submission
- The regulations for the University of Hull validated Foundation Degree and Honours Degree awards explain the full consequences of missing a deadline, please see the outline below.

Attendance at presentations

Students are expected to upload presentation slides to Turnitin by the submission deadline, failure to do so will result in a late submission penalty. Failure to attend an allocated presentation delivery time will result in a mark of 0 being awarded for that assessment.

Overlength assessment

Overlength assessment applies to all forms of assessment with a stipulated length or size, for example timed performances, presentations or lab work; word count for essays, reports, or other documented/written tasks. For summative assessed work, the College will normally not mark beyond the stipulated assignment length.

Overlength assessments:

- a) Assignment length does not include the assignment title or instructions.
- b) Unless otherwise specified your word count must exclude charts, graphs, tables etc included in the assignment.

- c) Unless otherwise specified your word count must exclude references in footnotes, appendices, references lists and bibliographies, but must include other footnotes, quotations and in text references and citations.
- d) An erroneous word count declaration will be dealt with as suspected use of academic misconduct. The case must then be followed up according to the Regulations governing Academic Misconduct.

Missing an assessment deadline

It is crucial that you submit your work on time to avoid the university's penalties for work deemed to have been submitted late. Should you fail to do so, the following penalties will apply:

N.B.

- Penalties are a percentage of the maximum mark available for the assessment component which has been submitted late.
- All coursework assessments have a published submission time which should be no later than 4pm

The late submission penalties which will be applied to coursework submitted after the published deadline are:

- i. Up to and including 24 hours after the deadline, a penalty of 10%.
- ii. More than 24 hours and up to and including 5 working days after the deadline; either a penalty of 10% or the mark awarded is reduced to the pass mark, whichever results in the lower mark.
- iii. Where work is submitted outside of the stipulated late period (greater than 5 working days late) it should not be marked and a mark of zero awarded.

Examples of the penalties for coursework submitted up to and including 24 hours after the deadline:

- If the maximum mark for the assessment is 100 and a student submits the assessment 2 hours after the deadline, the student's mark will be reduced by 10 (so that a mark of 65 will be reduced to 55, a mark of 48 will be reduced to 38 and so on).
- If the maximum mark for the assessment is 50 and a student submits the assessment 2 hours after the deadline, the student's mark will be reduced by 5 (so that a mark of 40 will be reduced to 35, a mark of 36 will be reduced to 31 and so on).

Examples of the penalties for coursework submitted more than 24 hours and up to and including 5 working days after the deadline:

Where the maximum mark for the assessment is 100

Pre-penalty mark	100	50	45	40	30
10% penalty of the maximum mark – in this case 100	90	40	35	30	20 or
Mark awarded is reduced to the pass mark	40	40	40	40	40
Outcome (the lower mark)	40	40	35	30	20

- These penalties should be taken into account when deciding submission dates.
- Where multiple submissions (hardcopy and electronic copy) are required guidance must make clear to students whether failure to submit in only one format constitutes 'non submission'.

10. POSSIBLE PROBLEMS AND SOLUTIONS

The following section explains possible solutions to problems which you may experience during your course and study, and which may mean that you are unable to complete assessments, or your course as originally planned. In all cases the emphasis is on getting advice from the appropriate person. It is important that you talk through any problems you might be experiencing with appropriate staff such as your Course Tutor who may then refer you to Student Support Services or the Quality & Compliance Lead.

The earlier the College is made aware of any impacting circumstances, the earlier support options can be made available. Some of these options may become limited, or not be available at all, if you wait until after the assessment submission date or until the end of an academic year before disclosing your problems.

Please note independent documentary evidence is required for all requests and may include a medical certificate, information from NHS app that includes your name and dates, letter from an employer, statement from a member of academic staff, statement of attendance from a counsellor, police report, legal documents etc.

* self-certification may be used to report short periods of illness (1 – 7 days), or events that have caused trauma. You may use the self-certification process for a maximum of two absences in a particular semester and a maximum of three absences in an academic year. If your period of illness is longer than five days, or if you have already used the self-certification process for the number of times as stated above, then you should seek medical advice and submit evidence as appropriate with your request.

Application for an Extension of up to 10 days

The extending of a submission deadline applies to course work or self-recorded presentations only. Other types of assessments held on fixed dates such as presentation delivery, practical or examination are not applicable. It is your responsibility to manage your time according to the assessment submission schedule and ensure that work is submitted by the published deadline. Missing a deadline will generally mean that work is subject to a penalty and may not be marked at all. If you are unable to submit work by the date published, you may apply for an extension. An application for an extension can only be approved if applied for no later than 48 hours after the published submission deadline and supported by appropriate documentary evidence. Requests received after the submission deadline will not be considered. The Application for Extension form can be found in the files section of the HE Student Team.

If the request is approved, an extension of up to ten working days will be applied from the original date of submission. If you require more than ten working days, you should make a request for additional consideration.

Application for Additional Consideration

The application for additional consideration form can be found files section of the HE Student Team and may be submitted when, due to personal circumstances you are unable to complete assessments by the deadline date, including presentation delivery, practical or examination, or where you consider that the quality of your performance on a module has been adversely affected by a particular personal circumstance. Applications for additional consideration must be submitted within 10 working days of the submission date and must be substantiated by independent documentary evidence.

In exceptional circumstances completed forms may be accepted up to 10 working days after the submission date. Any information received outside of this time period will not be considered, unless you can provide evidence that you were prevented from meeting the deadline by circumstances outside your control.

All applications for additional consideration will be considered by the College. Where the College is satisfied that the evidence submitted is appropriate and the request for additional consideration is approved, one of the following outcomes will be applied:

- You will be given the opportunity to submit the affected assessment with a revised deadline for submission
- if an attempt at the affected assessment or examination has been made, you, after having received the mark, will be offered the opportunity of a new fresh attempt. Advice and support can be sought.

*A fresh attempt shall be interpreted to mean, in the case of a first attempt, that the candidate is offered a new first attempt, and in the case of a reassessment, that the candidate is offered a new reassessment. The original mark will be void.

Examples of requests that are unlikely to be approved

- A long-term or chronic health condition (including mental ill-health) which has not worsened recently
- A minor short-term illness or injury, which would not reasonably have had a significant adverse impact on assessment
- Circumstances which were foreseeable or preventable
- Holidays
- Pressure of academic work (unless this contributes to ill-health)
- Poor time-management

- Lack of awareness of dates or times of assessment submission or examination
- Failures of equipment, including IT systems and computer viruses. These will only be accepted when they occur site-wide, nationally or internationally and can be verified by an independent source
- Attending an interview for a job or placement (Where an interview for employment or a work placement clashes with a scheduled assessment, a student is expected to rearrange the interview for a more appropriate time, if the Employer has flexibility to do that)
- Requests relating to group assessment, particularly in relation to the planning and preparation (e.g. intra-group conflict or absence/non-cooperation of one or more group members). Instead, these should be reported directly to the Module Tutor at the earliest opportunity
- Routine commitments to paid or voluntary employment

Extending a submission deadline may help ease the impact of your personal circumstances, however, it is important that you are aware that this could impact on other submission deadlines which could impact on your overall performance.

If you are considering withdrawing from the course

One of the benefits of the credit accumulation system operated by the University/Craven College is that it is often possible to take any credits gained where you have not completed your course and use them in the future, for example to resume your studies on the same course or at another college/university. The University of Hull considers that credits have a maximum 'shelf life' of 9 years, although re-admission would depend on the specific course of study in question, and therefore a shorter shelf life might apply. You may also be entitled to an 'interim award' if you withdraw before completing the course as follows:

- Successful completion of 120 credits: Certificate in Higher Education (subject studied)

If you decide to withdraw from the course, you must do this by email to withdrawals@craven-college.ac.uk explaining the reason for your withdrawal.

Suspension of study

An alternative to withdrawing from your course of study might be to suspend your studies for a period of time. This might enable you to resolve the difficulties which are affecting your studies, whether medical, personal or financial. Permission to suspend study requires the approval of the University on the recommendation of Craven College and must be supported by appropriate supporting documentation and details of the length of time requested, the reasons, and the last date you wish to attend the course.

Suspension of study may be granted for a maximum of one year but can be renewed provided that each level of the programme is completed within 3 years, including any suspension of study period.

There are times when the University may suspend a student continuing with their study if they are posing a risk to themselves or another, as part of the Student Support for Study process. Student Support for Study helps students to participate fully in relation to their academic studies, and as an engaged member of the University of Hull community.

The full version of the University of Hull's regulations relating to the suspension of study is available via the University's Quality and Standards website under the student information section.

In very special circumstances it may be appropriate to repeat a complete semester (including the teaching and assessment periods) or a complete year. Repeating the semester, or year, means you repeat that section, including all assessments, clearing your previous attempt. You must note that a repeat period will only be approved where you can clearly establish written evidence of either medical circumstances or exceptional personal circumstances or, in some cases, disability-related concerns which have been so serious that they have had a significant effect on your ability to undertake your studies, and that they have lasted for a large part of the year. Requests to repeat will not be accepted in cases where a student has simply performed poorly and wants 'a second chance'. In all cases, you must submit a medical certificate or information from a reliable and verifiable source other than yourself. The above rules also apply to any request to reapply for the same course of study. Applications to repeat are decided by the University's Student Cases Committee on the recommendation of Craven College. It is important that you consider the financial implications of this and inform the Student Loans Company of any changes to your original course end dates.

11. FEEDBACK ON YOUR WORK

Feedback, following moderation, should be received inside a four-week period excluding College holidays.

Feedback should:

- Align to learning outcomes and indicate specifically whether each outcome has been achieved, and if not the reasons for this judgement
- Be suitable to level and encourage a scholarly approach
- Identify academic skills and transferable skills in addition to specific learning outcomes
- Identify strengths to build on
- Identify areas for future development
- Clearly express professional judgements

Where appropriate, marks for individual pieces of assessed work will be given to you during the module to enable you to utilise feedback when completing the module. However, all results are provisional, which means they may be changed by the module board, for example on the advice of the external examiner. Marks are not final until the Programme Board of Examiners has met. The fact that a Module Board reduces a mark previously notified to you as provisional does not constitute a ground for appeal. The Programme Board of Examiners usually meets at the end of the academic year.

12. ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Plagiarism, cheating, collusion, examination fraud and attempting to obtain an unfair academic advantage are forms of academic misconduct and are entirely unacceptable for any Craven College student.

All coursework must be submitted via Turnitin, which will scrutinise work for plagiarism and the use of AI. You will have the opportunity to use Turnitin with a draft of your work to increase your awareness of good academic practice and learn in practical, ways how to improve your academic literacy skills.

In addition, you are required keep your work in your College Onedrive account, not your own PC, in order to ensure that a version history can be seen in the instance of suspected academic misconduct.

Counselling

The College has a Counselling Service which offers therapeutic support to students whilst they are studying at with us. This Service provides a safe, confidential space for students to talk through and process any worries, concerns, or anxieties that they may be experiencing. We understand that study does not occur in a vacuum – a whole range of factors, situations and life events may impact upon wellbeing, confidence, and ability to study. If you want to talk in confidence to one of our counsellors, they will arrange an initial assessment appointment for you. The initial assessment meeting will provide you with an opportunity to explore what is happening for you at the current time, whether counselling is the most appropriate form of support, and whether you are willing and able to utilise the counselling sessions at this time. If we agree to go ahead with a counselling contract, we will set some goals for the counselling work ahead, look at your availability for ongoing counselling, and discuss the confidentiality boundaries that surround the work. We can then arrange ongoing weekly counselling appointments for you. Any questions about the Counselling Service can be made on a confidential basis by calling 07984 599 789 or by contacting the Counselling Service Coordinator Bo Bloomfield via email.

20. ASSESSMENT AND PROGRESSION, INCLUDING REASSESSMENT

It is part of the requirement of your course that you are available to attend all timetabled sessions and submit work by the published deadline dates.

Reassessment

You will always be given the opportunity to undertake reassessment in modules in which you have not achieved the pass mark. Reassessment shall be by:

- i. resubmission of the same, amended, piece of work (where appropriate)
- ii. resit of an examination, or,
- iii. submission and assessment of a new piece of work.

You will be notified if you are required to complete reassessment which will include the type of reassessment and the deadline date for submission.

The method of reassessment is made clear within the module handbook/specification. The University regulations state that you have a right to be reassessed in the failed module on one occasion only. This being where you have not achieved a weighted average mark of at least 40%. The mark for any component of assessment in which you are reassessed shall be capped at the pass mark. All assessment regulations can be accessed via the University's Quality and Standards website.

Reassessment may not always be required; compensation, referral or condonement may be considered. Please see the regulations for the University of Hull validated Foundation Degree and Honours Degree awards for more information.

21. DETERMINATION OF RESULTS

Approved marks

Boards of Examiners

Your progression on your course (i.e. whether you have passed one year and can move onto the next) and your eligibility for the award and degree classification (if applicable) will be determined by Boards of Examiners governed by the University of Hull regulations. There are two levels of Boards of Examiners:

- Module Boards, which decide the mark to be awarded for each module.
- Programme Boards, which decide whether you can progress to the next year of the course and the classification of degree if you have reached the end of the Foundation Degree or Honours degree.

Boards of Examiners include membership from the staff who deliver the course, staff from the College, staff from the University and the External Examiner(s) appointed by the University to oversee the academic standards of the award. The External Examiner is a member of staff from another University or similar body who is experienced in the subject area of your course.

End of course results

Your final grades will be emailed to your student email account following university approval of the decisions made by the Board of Examiners. This is usually the end of July. You will not be able to get your results before the published deadlines, and under no circumstances will your results be given to you over the telephone, nor will they be given to another person on your behalf.

Foundation Degrees are classified with Pass, Merit or Distinction. The classification is based on the average mark across all modules studied at level 5 alone. An average of 40% at level 5 is required to achieve the Foundation Degree.

Distinction:	Average of 70% or above
Merit:	Average of 60-69%

If you have studied a foundation degree, your performance in the foundation degree programme shall not count towards the classification of your Honours degree. Classification is based on the weighted average of level 6 modules alone. Bachelor Honours Degrees are classified with First Class, 2:1, 2:2 or 3rd.

First class	Average mark of 70% or above
Upper Second class	Average mark between 60% and 69%
Lower Second class	Average mark between 50% and 59%
Third class	Average mark between 40% and 49%

You are entitled to an official transcript which sets out the full record of your results for the whole of your course of study. This will be produced by the College in accordance with guidance issued by the University (as the awarding body). You should note that you will be refused a transcript if you are in debt to the College for your tuition fees. You will be presented with your award certificate and Diploma Supplement at Graduation.

Graduation

Craven College's Graduation Ceremony takes place every year to celebrate the success of our students – not just their success with us, but their future success in education or employment after Craven College.

The Graduation ceremony usually takes place in September. Invitations are posted and emailed to students at the beginning of August; details are also posted to the College website.

22. RELEVANT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Appeals procedure

The University and Craven College have a set of procedures governing your right to appeal against a decision about your academic progress. It is important to be aware that you cannot appeal simply because you disagree with a decision of your department, for example to award 55 for a piece of work. You must be able to show that there has been some defect in the process by which that decision was made, such as not following procedures, bias or prejudice on the part of the examiner, or failure to consider relevant factors (such as mitigating circumstances). Appeals must be lodged within 15 working days of you receiving notification of the decision against which you wish to appeal. The University will allow students who have submitted an appeal to graduate and also allow students who have graduated to submit an appeal (provided they are within the 15 working day window). The candidate will graduate with the classification awarded and, if the appeal is subsequently upheld, any change will result in a new award being made.

If your appeal is heard but rejected by Craven College, you will have a final 'right of challenge' to the University but only if you can show that the College's Appeal Committee has not acted in accordance with its powers. Details of this right will be provided to you in the event that your appeal within Craven College is turned down.

University of Hull Student Cases Committee

The Student Cases Committee is a committee of the Education Committee; it acts within the remit of the Education Committee, and within the delegations given to it by the Education Committee. It provides assurance to the Education Committee regarding the consideration and determination of individual student cases submitted by students and academic areas. The Student Cases Committee deals with individual student cases, including overseeing all matters of academic discipline e.g. termination of programme of study and academic appeals for both on-campus and collaborative students. SCC considers and adjudicates cases involving individual students including matters relating to suspension of study, extensions to periods of study and repeat periods of study. SCC is also responsible for the management of the University Appeals Process.

The Craven College Higher Education Appeals Policy and procedure can be found on the College website.

Complaints procedure

Craven College values the views of all its customers and aims to manage complaints in a way that is sensitive to the needs of both individuals and groups. It is anticipated that most complaints will be dealt with through informal channels but if a student feels that it is necessary to pursue a complaint formally, they should access the Complaints Policy which can be found on the College Website.

As a student on a course leading to an award of the University you have a final right of challenge to the University, but only where you can demonstrate that the College has not considered your complaint in accordance with its published procedures. The University will not reconsider the merits of the complaint. Craven College is responsible for providing you with information about your rights.

Office of the Independent Adjudicator (OIA)

If the procedure above has been completed and you are unhappy with the outcome, you may take your complaint to the OIA. You can complain to the OIA about anything the College has done or failed to do. This might be about your programme of study, a service or a final decision of the College's disciplinary or appeal body. Further information including the rules and guidance note are available on the OIA website.

Data Protection Policy
